

Monday 23rd March 2020

Mrs Anderson's weekly newsletter

Last week we closed school for most of you which was very strange and difficult. I would like to say how proud I was of you all and the way you rose to the challenge. You coped with it all calmly and really supported your very busy teachers.

I am particularly proud of Year 6; how you made your own 'last day just in case' was admirable.

This is the first week of your home learning. For the next two weeks you have a paper pack but from after Easter you will find your week's learning on our website in your class page. Remember it is very important you do this learning—you are not on holiday!!

I have set up an Instagram page so I can share thoughts and other useful tips with you and your families. You shouldn't have this app without your parents managing it, however if you ask them to follow @mrsandersongdps you can keep an eye on things I share.

Some top tips:

1. Pace your work throughout the week, it's not a race!
2. Don't rush, aim for your best.
3. Don't worry if you make a mistake that is how we learn but remember to ask if you need help.
4. Take regular break and have some fun with your family

These images are from Anna Lewis @sketchymuma (Instagram)/ AnnaLewisArt (etsy) She is sending our school a print!

My quote of the week:

"Whatever you do, do it well."

Walt Disney

Joke of the week:

What did the big flower say to the little flower

Hi, Bud!

Storytime!

Free stories for kids of all ages

<https://stories.audible.com/>

This would be great for 45/6 pupils to work through with parents (Amazon)

I read this to Otto last night

You may have seen a movement on social media asking for children to put pictures in their window—just like we do on our display boards. So, if you haven't done already, how about drawing a great picture to put in the window of your house? Let's decorate our world!

I am going to learn how to make YouTube videos this week so I can do a weekly assembly for you. This week's assembly would have been about mothering Sunday and gratitude for our Mums. Watch this space .. I hope you looked after your Mum yesterday.

Goodbye, until next week, from Mrs Anderson, Otto and Bertie the dog.